

DR. OBERY M. HENDRICKS, JR.

Obery Hendricks is one of the foremost commentators on the intersection of religion and political economy in America. He is the most widely read and perhaps the most influential African American biblical scholar writing today. Cornel West calls him “one of the last few grand prophetic intellectuals.”

A former Wall Street investment executive and past president of Payne Theological Seminary, the oldest African American theological seminary in the United States, he is currently a Visiting Scholar at Columbia University in the Department of Religion and the Department of African American and African Diasporic Studies; a Visiting Professor at Union Theological Seminary; and Emeritus Professor of Biblical Interpretation at New York Theological Seminary. An Ordained Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, Hendricks holds the Master of Divinity with academic honors from Princeton Theological Seminary, and both the M.A. and Ph.D. in Religions of Late Antiquity from Princeton University.

Speaking Subjects:

- How to Love Your Neighbor: Christianity, Capitalism and Socialism
- Christianity and Socialism
- Black Churches and the Struggle for Justice
- The Bible, Ideology and Politics
- The Bible, Homosexuality and Freedom
- The Rise and Fall of Right-Wing Evangelicalism
- Toxic Religion and the American State
- The Politics of Jesus
- The Unsung Radicality of Martin Luther King
- The Right-Wing Evangelical War on America

Books:

@oberyhendricks  @oberyhendricks

To book Dr. Obery M. Hendricks, Jr. for your event, email Nanda Dyssou at nanda@corioliscompany.com.